About the Course

In 2005, the Unitarian Universalist Association published "Engaging Our Theological Diversity." This groundbreaking study, written by a team of Unitarian Universalist ministers and lay people, is the result of several years of deliberation, discussion and dialogue in Canada and the United States, and in congregations from coast-to-coast. It explores Unitarian Universalism at its deepest level, and seeks to hold up what unites us, even as we remain committed to diversity.

This nine-session course will take participants on a journey through Unitarian Universalism's theological landscape and towards the religious values that weave its outward diversity into a unified whole. It is equally suited to long time Unitarian Universalists and those new to Unitarian Universalism.

When Will We Meet?

The class meets about two Thursdays a month from 7 – 8:30 p.m. Preparation for each session includes 15-30 pages of reading and 15-20 minutes of journaling.

What Materials Do I Need?

You will need a copy of "Engaging our Theological Diversity." Copies can be downloaded free of charge through our website (www.emersonuuchapel.org) or at: www25.uua.org/coa/TheoDiversity/EngagingOurTheoDiversity.pdf or purchased at www.uuabookstore.org. If you are on a fixed income and/or do not have internet access, please contact Rev. Taves. We will make sure you are able to obtain the reading material.

You will also need something in which to journal as there will be a question for reflection that accompanies each reading assignment. Once you have registered, you will receive the reading assignments and the journaling questions.

How Do I Sign Up?

Please register for this course through our Chapel Office (call 636-256-7393 or email office@emersonuuchapel.org).
