Emerson UU Chapel...

is a vibrant and growing Unitarian Universalist congregation in west St. Louis County, with many members and friends, all with various gifts they contribute to create a thriving spiritual home. Emerson UU Chapel is a proud member and supporter of our association of congregations (www.uua.org), our Central Midwest District of the UUA (www.cmwd-uua.org) and local cluster of congregations (St. Louis Area UU Council, SLAUUC).

Find Your Passion...

we have places in Emerson just for you. Because interests vary and there are so many different groups, you are encouraged to try more than one. If you are interested in any particular group, please contact the committee chair or group convener. Don't know where to start? Check out our introduction to UUism class on our website UU Roots.

Where We Are Located...

Located one-half mile west of Clarkson Road, in Ellisville, and one-quarter mile north of Marchester (MO 100) on Strecker Road. We are on the right side just past Maple.

As a vibrant and growing church, Emerson Unitarian Universalist Chapel has been providing a spiritual community of love, acceptance, tolerance and liberal religion and religious education for all ages in west St. Louis County since 1984.

Fellowship & Fun

Being a part of Emerson means participating in the life of a congregation where we celebrate our diversity and rejoice in our similarities. At Emerson Unitarian Universalist Chapel, we welcome all who choose to walk with us in the spirit of love and fellowship, and in the search for truth and meaning. Together we create our traditions and combine the strands of all our lives to form the life and energy of our spiritual home. It means fulfilling the mission and ministry of the Chapel with our gifts of participation, service, fellowship, and financial support.

Check Us out on Our Website ...

Please feel free to read past sermons, to look out our youth Sunday service on Stonewall (video is posted on our front page), look into the activities going on at Emerson...then decide to try us out.

Growing Our Children's Program

Our Sunday Children's Religious Education program has grown by almost 50% this year. This has been no accident. Thanks to a team effort, our program is growing and thriving. If you have children, come and check us out!
